

Getting Help Consultation/Intervention Decision Tree

The Troubled Student

A student who is troubled, confused, very sad, highly anxious, irritable, lacks in motivation and/or concentration, demonstrating bizarre behavior or thinking about suicide

Consultation Resources

Questions about emotional and behavioral issues and getting help

Call:

Counseling Center 392-1575

Student Mental Health 392-1171

After Office Hours:

Alachua County Crisis Center 264-6789

Student Mental Health 392-1171

And/Or

Administrative/Judicial procedural concerns

Call:

Dean of Students Office 392-1261

After Office Hours:

Emergency Dean on Call 392-1111

And/Or

Academic Status

Call:

Associate Dean for Student Affairs – College
Department Chair or Program Coordinator

The Disruptive Student

A student whose conduct is disruptive or dangerous, verbal or physical threats, active threats of suicide and resisting help

Consultation/Intervention Resources

Rule out the possibility of harm to self or others

If physical safety of student or others is immediate concern

If Student Is On Campus – Call:

University Police Department 392-1111

If Student Is Off Campus – Call:

Alachua County Sheriff or Gainesville Police
911

Then

Administrative/Judicial procedural concerns

Call:

Dean of Students Office 392-1261

After Office Hours:

Emergency Dean on Call 392-1111

And/Or

Consultation with or referral to campus emergency counseling or health resources

Call:

Counseling Center 392-1575

Student Mental Health 392-1171

Student Health Services 392-1161

For a student who is off campus at the time:

Alachua County Crisis Center 264-6789